Introducing the Henley sofa range, a stylish and versatile collection designed to deliver comfort, durability, and excellent value. Henley combines contemporary design with the quality craftsmanship customers expect, offering a practical and comfortable seating solution at a competitive price point for low to medium risk environments.

Available as an armchair, 2-seater, and 3-seater, the Henley range is offered in both Standard and Plus levels of reinforcement, allowing customers to select the specification best suited to their setting and level of use. Ideal for healthcare, education, and other low to medium risk settings, both options are designed to provide dependable performance while maintaining a welcoming appearance.

The range has been tested to recognised industry standards, including BS EN 16139:2013 for strength, durability, and safety in non-domestic seating, alongside BS 5852:2006 ignition resistance standards (Sources 0, 1, and 5), delivering reliable durability and performance without compromising on comfort or design.
