

MOLLU

Healing
in motion

Pineapple

Mollu is a welcoming tub chair designed to soften mental health environments, with an optional 180-degree swivel base allowing gentle movement which can support self-regulation and sensory grounding.

The enveloping form fosters a sense of reassurance, while shallow seams minimise opportunities for concealing harmful items. The spherical shape discourages ligature attachment and prevents Mollu from being easily picked up, protecting people from harm.

Mollu was recently awarded a prestigious Design Guild Mark which recognises highest standards of originality and innovation in industrial design.

Healing in Motion

Mollu's 180-degree swivel base allows gentle movement which can support self-regulation and sensory grounding.

Safe

The spherical shape discourages ligature attachment and prevents Mollu from being easily picked up, protecting people from harm.

Practical

The base is constructed from a highly durable water-resistant surface that withstands frequent cleaning with fluid.

Ecological

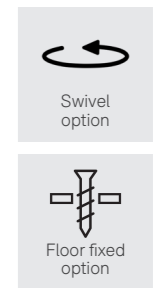

The base is manufactured from 80% recycled content, and the seat is upholstered in 100% recycled polyester.
